JACK DONOHUE AWARD 2020 NOMINATION PACKAGE

The Coaching Association of Canada's (CAC) "Coach of the Year" Award recognizes the outstanding contributions of a coach in Canada who exemplifies the qualities of honesty, integrity, a positive attitude, competitiveness, and a love of sport, and who has demonstrated the values of coaching excellence, continual development, and lifelong learning. This coach also teaches their athletes to value life, its experiences, and the passion of playing for your country.

As a founder of the Canadian Association of National Coaches, Jack Donohue was dedicated to the profession of coaching and demonstrated care and concern for all colleagues. The CAC's Professional Coaching Department presents the Jack Donohue Award annually.

Eligibility requirements:

To be eligible to receive the Jack Donohue Award, a coach should meet the following requirements:

- Be an NCCP certified coach
- Be licensed or registered with the CAC's Professional Coaching Department
- Possess and demonstrate the characteristics of honesty, integrity, positive attitude, competitiveness, and a love of sport
- Have demonstrated their abilities through achieving outstanding results, or marked improvements of athlete(s)/team during the competition year
- Have demonstrated concern for Long-term Athlete Development
- Have demonstrated care and concern for fellow colleagues
- Have inspired others through being a positive role model and mentorship
- Have demonstrated the value of coach excellence, development, and lifelong learning
- Have presented a strong and morale public image
- Have demonstrated a philosophy of fair play

Selection process:

The CAC Awards Committee will review all nominations put forward by the deadline. If successful, both the nominator and the recipient will be contacted by the CAC by phone by the end of August.

If unsuccessful, only the nominator will be sent an electronic letter of decision by the end of August.

Diversity and inclusion:

The Coaching Association of Canada is committed to promoting the values of diversity and inclusion within the Jack Donohue Award in order to recognize the tremendous contribution that all coaches make to the Canadian sport system and to the success of Canadian athletes on and off the field of play. The CAC welcomes nominations that reflect the diverse makeup of coaches in Canada.
