

Canadian Journal for Women in Coaching

Mission Statement: To provide timely, evidence-informed, and targeted information that addresses issues and information specific to women whose career is coaching.

Submission Guidelines:

Articles must reflect the Journal's Mission Statement and focus on material that relates directly to the interests and concerns of women who coach sports in Canada, either on a full-time or part-time salaried basis or as a committed volunteer coach. A review of past issues is recommended.

Articles must be original work.

Articles are reviewed by the Editorial Board. Notice of acceptance or rejection is provided by the editor.

If academic in nature, articles should include a maximum of five references. A detailed reference list may be submitted in a separate Word Document. References are made available upon request if the article is accepted.

Specifics:

- Length: between 1800 and 3000 words
- Format: Word document submitted via email
- Photos: Will be considered; if accepted, must conform to specifics (high-resolution digital images saved as TIF or JPG files, 300 dpi at 5" wide minimum (1500 pixels) for use in the body of the article). If not original, permissions must be attained.
- Author information: in the Journal style
- Language: English preferred.
- Graphics and Charts: Use a separate file and do not embed in a Word document.
